

Help inspire the next generation of Paleontologists. Please donate items for the Junior Paleontologist Educational Kits.

Examples of specimens needed.

Fossils Specimens Needed for "Junior Paleontologist Educational Kits"

Specimen examples that are found in the Jr. Paleontologist Activity Booklet

http://www.nature.nps.gov/geology/paleontology/jr_paleo.cfm

Mammal Jaws / Skulls
Petrified Wood (some bark & color showing preferred, like Arizona material)
Fossil Ferns (Example: Alethopteris with white pyrophyllite)
Trilobites (Examples: Flexicalymene, Diacalymene, or Elrathia kingi)
Fossil Fish (Example: Knightia from Green River Formation)
Fossil Plants - Flowering Plant Leaves or Seeds/Cones
Trace Fossils - Coprolites and Footprints/Tracks
Ammonites		Brachiopods
Stromatolites		Cycads or Conifer
Jellyfish (Mazon Creek or similar)		Starfish
Jurassic Dinosaur Bone/Teeth		Glyptodon
Megalodon Teeth		Archaeotherium
Smilodon or Smilodon Replicas		Coelophysis replicas
Mammuthus		Mesohippus
Shark Teeth - For "Mini-Kits"

Misc scrap for kids dig pit activities; pet wood, bones, shark teeth, turtle scutes, etc.

Financial contributions are also welcome for the purchase of books and replica specimens.

Please send specimen donations to:

Florida Paleontological Society - National Fossil Day Project
c/o Florida Museum of Natural History
P.O. Box 117800
Gainesville, FL 32611-7800